THREE ROBBERIES

OF A BRIGLARY

Usual Nightly Record of Crime As Reported to Police This Morning.

HOLOUPS STILL OPERATING

Screams of Terrified Little Girl Send a Porch-Climber Scurrying Through The Window.

Three robberies were reported to the police last night, two hold-ups and one pickpocket. H. W. Statts, of 242 south Tenth East street, was the first victim. While in front of 226 south Fourth East street about 11 o'clock, he was confronted by two highwaymen and relieved of a dollar and a stickpin. Thirty minutes afterwards, the same highwaymen, according to descriptions, held up Thomas Witsell, of 404 south Fourth East street, just as he was entering his home. In the latter robbery the highwaymen were bold enough to work under the glare of an arc light and secured several dollars and a gold watch from their victim.

NEGRESS PICKS POCKET.

Gustave Sisko, a musician living at 266 south Second East street, was accosted by a negress while on his way home about 1 o'clock this morning, and the negress picked his pocket, containing $50. The negress, however, made her escape in the darkness and Sisko could give but little description of her to the police.

BURGLAR SCARED AWAY.

The screams of a terrified little girl, awakened from sleep by the entrance of a burglar into her room, frightened away a porch-climber from the residence of Thomas Williams, 267 Canyon road, at 1:30 o'clock this morning. The midnight prowler had climbed a porch and gained his entrance into the house through a second story window, and in the parlor Sisko the bedroom occupied by the girl, Pearl Williams, when she was awakened. In her fright she screamed and the burglar leaped through the window he had entered.

A private safe may be rented in the fire and burglar proof vaults of the Commercial Trust Co., 32-34 Main street, $2.00 per year.

WIND AND LIGHTNING.

Monday evening's wind squalls blew down a block of Independent Telephone wire on Grand avenue, and the Telluride company's power wires were repeatedly struck by the lightning, throwing out the street car service for 45 minutes; but no serious damage was done. The display of lightning was impressive, with the deep yellow coloring of the hazy atmosphere at 5:30 attracted a good deal of attention. The color changed to a deep red later. There was considerable precipitation in the mountains, but only a few splashes fell in town. The wind cooled the atmosphere, if it did nothing else, making the night pleasant for sleeping. The air early this morning was just what might be expected at Brighton.

The wind at Saltair was so fierce that people arriving on the 6:30 p.m. train were forced to remain in the cars until the storm had subsided.

BATHING AT SALT AIR MAKES THE SICK WELL AND MAKES THE WELL BETTER.

LAKE LEVEL DROPPING.

The great lake continues to shrink, the level having fallen since June 1, nine-tenths of a foot, and two inches in the last two weeks. Unless there be some precipitation shortly to even this loss up, a still further heavy shrinkage may be expected during the current month. The weather during the week past has been, as usual, warmer than the normal for the time of the year, but the heavy local showers over the valley, but they were effective only in the immediate vicinity of the lake. The water level of the lake is still dropping, and the weather during the week past has been, as usual, warmer than the normal for the time of the year, but the heavy local showers over the valley, but they were effective only in the immediate vicinity of the lake.

A. E. MORENO PURGED

OF OVER WORK CHARGE

Son of Councilman, It Transpires, Did Not Make Out All the Water Tax Notices.

Some time ago the parties who delivered over the city the 16,947 water tax notices presented to the city council a bill for the entire amount in the name of Arthur E. Moreno, son of Councilman Moreno, whereas young Moreno's share was only $60.63 out of the $720.25. At the meeting of the council Monday night, the matter was held up as it appeared that A. E. Moreno had never seen the bill, though his supposed signature was attached as if he had done so. The committee reported in part as follows:

"We find that although the amount of the bill is correct, yet it is presented in the name of A. E. Moreno is not only erroneous, but unjust to Mr. Moreno. The presentation of the bill in his name is irregular, as the bill is made by and without the knowledge or consent of Mr. Moreno, by the treasurer's office after having been sworn to in the name of Mr. Moreno by an employee in the treasurer's office who exceeded his authority. Because of this apparent error in the face of the bill, it should never have been presented to this council by the auditor's office."

"We further find that the presentation of the entire bill in the name of Mr. Moreno is unfair to him, for the reason that there were 17 persons employed in common with him by the city treasurer to do this work, and $720.25 only $60.63 due him. We are informed that the treasurer's office took the liberty of putting Mr. Moreno's name to the order in order to save making out separate bills and warrants to each of the 17. In view of these facts, your committee recommends that the $720.25 for making out and delivering the 16,947 notices be put on the list to the credit of Gordon Snyder, city treasurer, and that he distribute the same."

The following are some who assisted in the work: L. E. McArthur, $51.35; W. O. Norrell, $51.35; C. H. Kraft, $51.35; E. H. Kraft, $51.35; M. E. Beaver, $60.63. Others on the list for amounts ranging from $17 to $50 include W. F. Josi, Edward Beaver, Laura Godde, Guy Snyder and Miss Snyder.

AMUSEMENTS

Orpheum—The real headliner at the Orpheum this week is the clever dramatic sketch in which Mr. Allen Atwell plays chief part, and in which F. H. Hamilton, Mr. Percy Plunkett and Mr. George E. Brown give excellent support. Mr. Atwell is not unknown here, having made a distinct hit as the Jap valet in one of the recent productions at the Salt Lake theater. His ability in depicting oriental character parts is again demonstrated in his portrayal of the Japanese diplomatic spy, who under the guise of a valet, wins the confidence of an American official, and in his position as an assistant, attempts to copy material from the army code book. The sketch is original and cleverly conceived and acted, and holds the interest of the audience throughout.

"Seniors" Valentine and Dooley come next in general excellence, their bicycle performance being little short of marvelous. "The Living Rubber Ball," a comedy, and "The Rubber Ball," a comedy, are also on the program. The women of the trio is pretty and graceful, but her charm falls in her grotesque tumbling and dancing, which could be almost said to be her advantage and that of the sketch. Miss Lena Tyson in "The Soph" and "The Freshy," makes a most charming and convincing college boy, and Mr. Ed Pennell is a capable and convincing Harry Pontelle and Miss Viola Vallorie are a pair of artistic entertainers in a monologue, dancing and singing sketch, and Fred Warren and Al Blanchard keep the audience in a roar with their screaming sketch. The piece de resistance is Grigolatti's aerial ballet from the New York Hippodrome, with Mille Floretta and a bevy of charming young women in the ballet. The audience, as usual, was very appreciative and the entire scene artistic. All the entertainers last night were suffering evidently from the warm weather, but the cooler temperature will doubtless help them to their feet over the week and also insure capacity audiences.

SEEKS SIXTY DAYS

OF HORSE RACING

Councilman Martin Mulvey Asks That Salt Lake Have an Encore on Recent Experiences.

One ray of hope for the continuation of horse racing in Salt Lake City pierced through the weekly bill walls of the city council Monday night when the turf followers headed by Councilman Mulvey presented a resolution asking that the recently passed ordinance be amended so as to permit 60 days of racing in the spring and 30 days in the autumn. The resolution went to the municipal laws, the license, the police and prison committees, at Mr. Mulvey's request.

Judge Morse will probably dismiss the case against Chief Harty today on account of lack of jurisdiction and therefore it may be six months before a decision on the right of the city council to pass an ordinance forbidding betting on horse races is handed down by the courts. In the meantime the followers of the game are doing all in their power to stir up interest and favorable comment. Mr. Mulvey said last night that the other members of the council crawled in their desks when a vote was to be taken on a really important question and that he was only one that voted as he felt. He poses as the champion of horse racing in the city council, his love for the sport being secondary only to his affection for the state game which Mr. Mulvey supported were Frank Knox, C. W. Freed, V. A. Paul, Pat Ryan, the Morrison-Merrill Lumber company, Fred Slade, Harry Cunningham, B. Ramsey, G. S. Holmes, John Condon and Ezra Thompson.
